draft manuals for the temples at Belur, Srirangapatna and Nanjangud
prepared by Mr B Ramiah

It is reported that the draft manuals have been read chapter by chapter by the ~~Thesma duros~~ important temple servants, other devotees and approved by them and the respective Sole Division officers. Two hundred copies of each are proposed to be printed.

In the draft manual relating to the Srirangapatna temple the question has been raised for decision as to whom all "Dulani Prasada" has to be distributed at the temple.
Orders are solicited on this point.

be taken up earlier which is much regretted though unavoidable. I have gone through the MSS of all the three manuals and made some corrections. In the manual pertaining to the Srīringapatam temple, on pages 35 & 37, the marginal note of the S.D.O shows that there is some difference of opinion between Mr. B. Ramani and the Dharmadarsis with regard to the distribution of Tulasi Prasad (१५०३-१५०४).

regard to the Manual pertaining to the Belur temple. The introduction (ॐ ॐ ॐ) which has been written in the case of the other two manuals is not written in this case. on page 55, the two lines against which a flower bracket is put in red ink make the meaning ambiguous as they do not fit into the passage as such. on page 76, there are the words "ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ" (under the General heading "ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ") and it is not clear whether this is due to a slip of hand or whether "ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ" which takes place on the second day as mentioned on page 75, has to be repeated on the third day also, "ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ ॐ" being celebrated thereafter. Again on page 183, the Shanyas as copied from the inscription seem to be defective so far as the grammatical forms ^{of 'ॐ' 'ॐ' 'ॐ' 'ॐ' 'ॐ' 'ॐ' 'ॐ' 'ॐ'} are concerned for the words not be helped if the original itself is defective

11 On page 71 of the Manual pertaining to the Nanjangud temple, there are the words "Be 022022022 2202222 2202222" but the details that ought to follow are missing.

12 It is requested that these defects may kindly be got rectified by the author. MR. B. Ramalinga has taken much pains in compiling these three manuals and it is hoped that they will be of immense value to the authorities of the temples concerned.

M. E. Maniya was consulted in the matter of the remarks made by the Government Commissioner.

(i) As regards the Tulasi Prasada in para 9 of the manual of the Seringapatam temple, it is said that this Prasada is called ಅಂಜನೇಶ್ವರಪ್ರಸಾದ which according to the practice in Vishnu temples is to be given only to srivaishnava moorti, i.e., to Srivaishnava married men and boys, to have had ----- upanayanam and not to women and other boys. This seems to be a long standing practice and the view of of Dharmadarsis to have this practice changed will introduce an innovation which will, if permitted, ultimately lead to trouble.

17 The Deputy Commissioner is also of the same opinion and I agree with him in this respect.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward here with draft manuals for the temples of Belur, Seringapatam and Nanjangud prepared by Mr. L. Ramiah who was specially appointed for the purpose. The draft manuals - are reported to have been read Chapter by Chapter at a meeting of the Dharmadarsis important temple servants and other devotees ---- presided over by the Sub Division Officers of Saklespur, Trench-rocks and Nanjangud respectively and approved by them with slight modifications which have been noted in pencil in the drafts.

2. In the draft manual of Sri Ranganathaswami temple at Seringer the distribution of "Tulasi Prasada" has been noted on page 35 and it is stated that it should be distributed to Sreevaishnavas only. The Deputy Commissioner states that in accordance with the extract of the Taluk "From" and "To" register the Sri Parakalaswami opined that this Prasada should be distributed only among the members of the -- Sreevaishna sect who recite Prabandas and that others are not ----- concerned in it. This practice is reported to be in vogue in the temple. The Dharmadarsis on the other hand want that the prasada should be distributed among all the people alike. The practice in vogue will have to be adopted as any innovation in religious ----- practices is bound to lead to serious troubles.

3. I recommend that the manuals may be approved the Superintendent Government Press authorized to print 200 copies of each of the manual, 125 copies of the same being sent to this office for distribution and the balance kept for sale at the ---- Government Book Depot Bangalore.

2. At page 246 of the draft the word "Shadupadma" (शदुपदम) occurs a number of times and at one place it has been changed to "Rudrapada" (रुद्रपद), I am to request that similar alteration might be effected at other places as well.

3. At page 251 of the draft Manual the Dharmadarsins have introduced a marginal correction which suggests a material alteration. The point may be looked into once again before copies are struck off.

S. P. RAJAGOPALACHARI, Esq., B.A., B.L., Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

To

Rajasevaparayana

B. Srinivasa Iyengar, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

Secretary to Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Financial Department.

SIR,

Referring to correspondence ending with your letter No. S103/Muz.22-30-2 dated 26th March 1931 directing, among other matters, that two hundred copies of the manuals prepared by Mr. B. Ramaia may be got printed, I have the honor to state as follows:-

In connection with the preparation of the press copies of the manuals and the correction of proofs &c., Mr. B. Ramaia represents that the special work on which he was engaged terminated with the submission of the manuscript manuals and requests that an extra remuneration of Rs.100/- for each manual may be sanctioned as the preparation of press copies of the voluminous compilation, and seeing the work through the press entail considerable labour, ~~of Rs.100/- may be sanctioned for~~ ~~each temple manual.~~

2. It seems to me that the terms of employment of Mr. B. Ramaia included the preparation of the press copies, revision of proofs &c., and while conveying detailed instructions and fixing a programme of work, a duration of one and half months has been provided for revision, consolidation and preparing the manuals for press &c., (vide contract ~~herewith~~ with this office memo C.No.889/28-29 dated 27-7-1.20). This clearly indicates that the work for which additional remuneration is now asked for, was provided for in the original contract and Mr. B.
Ramaia is not correct in saying that he has now been asked to do work not contemplated before.

3. There is, however, no doubt that the work has been

~~has been~~ more exacting than was originally anticipated and trouble are needed in preparing the press copies and proofs &c., As Mr. Ramaia is said to have done good and val work, I recommend that his request for some additional remuneration may be favourably considered and the payment of a sum of Rs.50/- for each manual sanctioned as a special case to be charged to the respective temple funds on the distinct understanding that Mr. Ramaia will be in sole charge of the work and see to the early publication of the - manuals in their final form.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Rajagana

Muzrai Commissioner.
